

Website Vendor Requirements

In order to maintain the highest standard of customer satisfaction and education, we strongly support and encourage direct communication between resellers and end users. If you are interested in offering our products on your company's website, you must meet the below requirements. These requirements are not intended to restrict sales channels, they are intended to ensure end users receive the best care possible from established resellers.

- Exclusively offers Beta glucan for the category of immune supplements sourced from Baker's yeast as sold by Transfer Point, Inc.
- Does not offer Transfer Point branded products on any international marketplace or marketplace that advertises to international markets without prior consent from Transfer Point, Inc.
- It is our policy to publish our price lists to our distributors twice a year. Publication of pricing at the retail level by a distributor may be based on Transfer Point's suggested retail pricing as a manufacturer (MSRP) which is established in support of our distributors in setting their own retail pricing consistently within the sale outlets approved for distribution according to their distributorship status with our company.
- Sales only through a business name declared to Transfer Point, Inc.
- No excessive customer complaints

By signing below, I acknowledge that I understand the above information and also that I am able to sign agreements on behalf of the company noted below.

Signature _____

Date _____

Printed Name _____

Title _____

Company Name _____